

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

MAID IN MONTANA. The six daughters of Governor Joseph Dixon of Montana are well-known in Washington, the governor having served a term here in the United States Senate. They are Dorothy, Virginia, Betty, Mary, Peggy and Florence Dixon. —Wide World Photos.

THE HEAVY HAND OF THE LAW falls on Buddy Doyle, the minstrel man at the Belasco Theater, but as the Central headquarters men are all friends of Buddy's, things may not be as bad as they seem. The scene, staged at the Union Station here, is to be used in a comedy film later by Doyle.

OF FOREIGN IMPORTATION is Miss Catherine Radcliffe, of Cardiff, Wales, a "bud" of this season. Miss Radcliffe is visiting Admiral and Mrs. J. K. Robison in Washington for the winter. —Harris & Ewing.

HONEYMOONING IN THE U. S. Lord Louis Mountbatten, cousin of King George of England, and his bride are planning a visit first of all to Niagara Falls, the Mecca of newlyweds. Lord Louis was in the United States when the Prince of Wales visited these shores two years ago. —International.

THE YOUNGER MEMBERS of society lent a hand in the staging of the carnival at Pembroke Park last evening, among them Miss Theresa Pyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pyle. —International.

FREE AIR. The rear tire on the old "bus" went flat and little Nancy Brookner finds herself forced to seek aid at the nearest service station. Believe this if you can. —Times Staff Photographer.

DATE THIS WINSTED, CONN. The Penn State lion and the campus goat meet amicably after the students' campaign to raise the college emergency fund. The goat was the prize for the lowest score and the lion the highest. —Underwood & Underwood.

FOR THE MORNING AFTER, placing the hands in a bowl of electrified water is said by physicians to be a sure cure for headaches. The water is electrified by means of a simple apparatus. —International.

PEMBROKE PARK, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thom, was the meeting place for society folks yesterday afternoon and evening, when the grounds were turned over to the Woman's Welfare Association for their autumn carnival. In the group of pretty girls making the carnival a success were Miss Josephine Williford, Miss Dorothy Johnson and Miss Helen Griffin. —International.

OLD FRIEND, "DOUG" FAIRBANKS, in the role of "Robin Hood," shot an arrow into the air from the roof of his New York hotel. He knew where it fell, for his target raised a fearful row. —International.

"CHINATOWN M.A.E.," widow of the "King of Chinatown," the late Part Conroy, is the central figure around which the fight to break the "King's" will is being staged by his relatives. —International.

See the News of the World AT ALL LEADING THEATERS SHOWING INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Released by Universal Film Exchanges